BHLGCIC Code of Conduct

You must not do anything on your allotment or behave on the allotment site in a way that is (or is likely to be) a nuisance or annoyance to other people. It is not possible to list everything that is a nuisance or annoyance. Below are some examples of the most common kinds:

- Rowdy behaviour, excessive noise, swearing or shouting
- Failing to maintain your plot boundaries
- Having an excessive amount of bonfires

You must not harass, intimidate or abuse anybody else on the allotment site. Harassment includes offensive behaviour directed at people because of their age, gender, disability, racial group, sexual orientation, religion or belief. This also includes indirect threats towards or making malicious comments about other tenants

You will not at any time use offensive language or offensive/aggressive behaviour towards other tenants, committee officers or members of the public. You should be respectful and polite regardless of their race, gender, disability, age, sexual orientation, religion or belief.

We reserve the right to issue one month's Notice to Quit, if these are not adhered to.

You are responsible for the conduct and activities of anybody you allow on the allotment site.

You shall not allow children onto the site unless accompanied and supervised by the plot holder or other responsible adult.

You shall not cause or permit any nuisance or annoyance to any other tenant, or obstruct or encroach onto other plots paths or roadways.

You must not live in, or temporarily sleep overnight in any part of your allotment.
